

WORKSHOP ON DISEASE PREPAREDNESS

'A One Health Training Programme'

4th - 6th DECEMBER 2013

London UNITED KINGDOM

Outline of the Programme

1.5 days lectures from key speakers in emergency responses to pandemic disease outbreaks threatening Europe

Topics to be discussed

Emergency preparedness and response
Controls for Biohazard risk group 4 pathogens
Risks from the spread of pandemic human pathogens
Risks from the introduction of emerging veterinary diseases

Exercise Hippocrates and Exercise Aristotle

Two 0.5 day exercises to explore the capacity and capability to respond to a disease outbreak in Europe

Who should attend

The workshop will be applicable to anyone from partner institutes and especially for early career scientists who will deal with the future threat from emerging zoonotic infectious diseases in Europe

Venue

London – specific details to be announced shortly.

For additional information please contact Dr Anthony Fooks:

Tony.Fooks@ahvla.gsi.gov.uk (+44 1932 357840)