

Young Antigone Meeting 2016

18-20 September – Cambridge

For and by young scientists: your future peers!

Keynote lectures Jonathan Yewdell:

“How to Succeed in Science Without Really Trying”

AND

“Influenza Virus as a Convenient Excuse for Pursuing Curiosity Driven Research”

‘Scientific’ speeddates

Social program: Dinner, drinks & your first punting experience

Register and submit an abstract (max 350 words) before 30 June 2016 to youngantigone2016@gmail.com

Not restricted to
Antigone members

For more information: youngantigone2016@gmail.com

Image courtesy Sidney Sussex College, Cambridge